

Mendon Conservation League

CODE OF CONDUCT

April 1, 2018

Membership in Mendon Conservation League, Inc. (hereafter abbreviated as MCL) is a privilege, not a right.

As a condition of membership, you have agreed to abide by the following rules of conduct.

It is understood that failure to do so may result in your censure and/or expulsion.

1. When you are on MCL property, it is your responsibility to obey all Federal and State firearm laws and regulations.

2. As an MCL member, it is your responsibility to respect your fellow members and guests.

Menacing gestures, verbal threats and violence of any sort against another person while on MCL property is strictly prohibited.

3. It is your responsibility to respect MCL property and the personal property of your fellow members and guests.

Vandalism and theft are strictly prohibited. If you accidentally damage club or member(s) property it is your duty to promptly report it.

4. You are responsible for practicing safe gun handling at all times. The carelessness or mishandling of firearms in such a way as to endanger the safety of others is strictly prohibited.

5. It is your responsibility to wear your current badge and/or carry your membership card at all times while on club property.

6. You are prohibited from using MCL's name, symbols, icons, trademarks, membership data, official statements, reports or constitution without permission and you may not imply affiliation with, sponsorship of, or approval by MCL without permission.

7. You are prohibited from using MCL to suggest or promote private business, political, religious or social agendas.

8. You are prohibited from using MCL's not-for-profit tax status for personal purposes. You are also prohibited from performing any thoughtless or deliberate act that might invalidate MCL's insurance or put the club's existence at risk.

9. You are prohibited from bringing disrepute or embarrassment upon MCL or attempting to undermine its programs, projects or purposes.

Defamation, vilification, calumny, false accusation, slander & libel against MCL, its members, officers and directors are also prohibited.

10. It is your responsibility to abide by the existing By-laws, Rules and Regulations of MCL.

Ignorance is not an excuse.

